

Ages: Campers 5 -11 years old
 Middle School Counselor in Training Program (CIT)

Camp Days: Each week, campers will enjoy a different morning camp, 9 - 12 p.m. Full day campers eat a bag lunch at noon. Outdoor Adventure Camp, 1 - 4 p.m. is offered every afternoon or campers may participate in Academic Prep offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Why Camp Cedar Crest? What makes our summer programs unique? Cedar Crest camps are planned and taught by Cedar Crest teachers and staff. Lead teachers are professional educators sharing camp and field instruction; they are passionate about teaching! Our goal for your child is to experience high-quality academic-focused camps, with plenty of outdoor play, fun and sports on our sun drenched campus playgrounds, soccer field, lake and woods.

Safety: All teachers, counselors and staff are fingerprinted/background checked to work at Camp Cedar Crest. All students wear life jackets while on our dock, boating and swimming. Safety glasses are worn when fishing. Please notify us of allergies or special dietary restrictions.

Before/After care: Each day, 7:30 - 9 a.m. and 4 - 5:30 p.m., $5.50/hr.

What should my child bring to camp each day? Two healthy snacks, lunch, water bottle, sunscreen, bug spray, extra clothes, wear athletic shoes, bring water shoes or closed toe sandals for water use, hat for sun protection, sunglasses
